

KERRY DARA KAUKINEN

Water Polo Background

Kerry began her water polo career in Vancouver and begun playing for Pacific Storm as a cadet. Since then, she has progressed through the ranks of the Youth, Junior and Senior National Teams.

Strengths

Kerry's main strength is playing the center forward position and her swimming ability.

Goals

Qualify for and participate in the 2012 London Olympics

Hobbies & Education

When not in the pool, Kerry likes to travel, enjoy other water sports and go to the beach

Greatest Influence

My Grandfather

Career Highlights

DOMESTIC

2008 CSL Championship & MVP

NATIONAL TEAM

2004 Junior Pan Ams – 2nd

2005 Junior World Championships – 6th

2006 Junior Pan Ams – 2nd

2007 Junior World Championships – 10th

Birth date: January 9, 1987

Position: Hole Set

Height: 5'9

Weight: 170lb

Handedness: Right

Canadian Club: Pacific Storm

Hometown: North Vancouver

Current Residence: Montreal

Current Club: Pacific Storm

Education:
Concordia University

Years on the National Team:
3 years Junior, 1 year Senior